'your unique gift giving idea'

Dear Kyle:

As I signed up for Business Coaching I thought, I have no idea what I am in for. I knew that I had previously used a business coach and it was a lot of money, time, and I felt like I was coaching him. Anyone who knows Kyle, knows for a fact he won't waste your time.

I walked out of the initial session coached. I had been give tools, and a virtual road map of where I should be going. I thought, he's good, but I was still a little skeptical once I saw the monthly amounts and commitment time frame. I trusted Kyle and his reputation he had left me with after our first meeting. I signed up for six months. Those six months included a lot of work on my part, and again, like most people would, I thought, man I am paying him a lot for all this work I am doing. After six months I decided to take a bit of a break, however Kyle continued, as he did while I was coaching with him, to follow up, check in by email and phone. I started coaching again not long after I stopped.

Just after my one year mark had passed, we had done a lot of the heavy lifting, digging, and brain storming. It was at this meeting I had the best coaching session yet. I got it! I realized why you need to commit to least a year of coaching to get results. I have come so far with my businesses thanks to Kyle. He stuck by me even when I couldn't wrap my brain around what he wanted me to do, but did it anyways. His knowledge and perception on how a business is ran and his eagerness to keep his eye on the prize, my business goals, blows me away still. I look forward to every session with him and leave him on a mission to grow. He truly does change the way a business owner thinks, acts, and runs a company.

I strongly urge anyone who has commitment issues to sign up with Kyle for at least two years. will not be disappointed and you will leave with a tool box of skills. You will wonder why you didn't start yesterday. You

Sincerely,

Jade Anderson
